

Year 3 and 4: Relationships

Subject Specific Vocabulary

Inclusion	The act of being included.
Rights	Is morally correct or honourable.
Responsibilities	Something you are expected to do.
Privacy	Someone's right to keep their personal to keep their personal matters to their self.
Secret	Information that is only known by one person or a few people that isn't told to others.
Discrimination	Treating someone or a group of people differently, in a worse way because of their characteristics.
Disrespect	No respect, speaking or behaving rudely to someone.
Human Rights (law)	A basic right all people are born with.
UN Convention on Rights of Child	UNCRC, is the basis of all of Unicef's work. It applies to all children and young people under 18. Its aim is to recognise the rights of children and young people and ensure that they grow up in the spirit of peace, dignity, tolerance, freedom, equality and solidarity.

How do we treat each other with respect?

What I will learn by the end of this topic:

- How people's behaviour affects myself and others
- How to demonstrate respectful behaviour in different situations and receive this back
- Understand rights and responsibilities, including privacy and when secrets should be kept or told
- How to protect my own child rights
- Everyone should feel included, respected and not discriminated and how to respond to this
- How to respond to inappropriate behaviour and report concerns

How to Show Respect

we can show respect!

we can show respect to our friends by:
 sharing taking turns keeping our hands to ourselves
 using teamwork using kind words being helpful loving each other

we can show respect to our parents by:
 loving them listening to them being honest using words like please and thank you

we can show respect to our teachers by:
 Raising our hands using kind words listening and following directions being honest being helpful using words like please and thank you we can show respect to our school by:

 picking up trash (even when it's not ours!) cleaning up our mess
 treasuring books not being wasteful

I can show respect to myself by:
 being on time being prepared being neat and clean always doing my best

Previous Learning

- I know what makes me special and how everyone is different
- I understand how I am similar or different to others, and what we have in common
- I know that families are different but have similar features